

My Insanely Great Paper Prospectus

Jimmy Neutron

August 30, 2004

For my Programming Languages research paper, I would like to design a programming language for 12-year-old boy geniuses. The language will provide access to nuclear and quantum physics constructs. It is accompanied by a robotic dog that serves as a sounding-board and quick-prototyping interpreter.